Projects

Starter - PostgreSQL, Flask-SQLAlchemy, React, Redux, Node.js

live site | github

Starter is a recipe website devoted to sourdough bread. Inspired by seriouseats.

- Utilized Adobe Photoshop video timeline and smart objects to craft an interactive animated website logo
- Designed responsive recipe cards using React hooks, allowing users to like and save their favorite recipes
- Built database architecture using PostgreSQL and Flask-SQLAlchemy, giving users the freedom to add, delete, and edit recipe ingredients and instructions

TaskRat - PostgreSQL, Flask-SQLAlchemy, React, Redux, Node.js

live site | github

TaskRat is a group project. It is a clone of TaskRabbit with a post-apocalyptic twist.

- Collaborated with a team of four developers in a single Github repository, using proper version control tactics
- Practiced good pair-programming techniques while implementing all backend CRUD routes for the Tasks and Tags features, ensuring a minimal amount of bugs at the production level
- Crafted engaging and intuitive multi-step forms to gather user data, centering user control and freedom through the ability to check and change information before posting

Screamium - PostgreSQL, Express, Sequelize, React, Redux, Node.js

live site | github

A spooky clone of Medium. Share your favorite horror stories here.

- Leveraged React Hooks and CSS3 to build an intuitive user interface, ensuring the user's ability to easily Create, Read, Update, and Destroy stories
- Implemented a bookmarks feature using AJAX fetches, allowing users to save their favorite stories in one readily accessible location
- Controlled state using Redux, establishing a maintainable and easily scalable means of managing site data
